

Certificates of Appreciation

Hawkwood Energy

Accepting certificate on behalf of Hawkwood Energy: Mr. Joe Johnston
Mr. Jim Blount

The City of Bryan would like to recognize Hawkwood Energy for their contribution to the new regional park located at the old municipal golf course, by plugging their well number 10 and vacating the surface that is adjacent to the new skate park at Williamson Park, to be used by the City of Bryan for incorporation into the new Regional Park.

Hawkwood Energy, founded in 2012, is a Denver-based independent exploration and production company, with an office in the Brazos Valley. Today, Hawkwood Energy operates over 300 wells and over 13,000 net barrels of oil per day.

Hawkwood Energy believes in giving back to the community in which it operates and encourages employee volunteerism and philanthropy. In October 2015, Hawkwood Energy partnered with Habitat for Humanity to help build homes in Bryan, Texas. Hawkwood Energy intends to stay active in volunteerism, with a focus on aiding those in need.

CERTIFICATE OF RECOGNITION

AWARDED TO

HAWKWOOD ENERGY

for Contributions to New Regional Park

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Andrew Nelson', is written over a horizontal line.

Andrew Nelson
Mayor, City of Bryan

